

Paragraph On My Father 100 Words

My father is an admirable person in my life. He is my guide and my friend. At forty years old, he works diligently as an architect in a private company. Despite his busy schedule, he prioritizes our family's well-being. My father embodies honesty and courage, values he instills in me through his actions. He never hesitates to lend a helping hand to those in need. In his free time, he enjoys playing cricket and football with me, fostering our bond. I aspire to emulate his kindness, work ethic, and love for family. My father is truly my role model and source of inspiration.
